

Why would the FCC want to take away one of the best products to hit the market in decades. XM Radio should not be restricted from broadcasting weather and traffic information. Nobody owns rights to that kind of information. The FCC should reject NAB's Petition 04-160